which showing the distance of Switzerland from there. This is a small hill station in the state of Himachal Pradesh located at an altitude of 1950Mtr from the sea level. The main attraction of Khajjiar is the green Saucer shaped ground surrounded by thick deodar trees. The small lake in the middle of the ground gives a feather to this beautiful spot. This is a magical place with snowcapped mountains all around.

Arrive Khajjiar and enjoy the beauty of this picturesque spot, which is full of natural beauty and a real paradise. You can go for a horse ride around the ground (on direct payment). Return in the afternoon and rest of the day at leisure for shopping etc. Dinner & Overnight at hotel.

Day 06: Dalhousie/ Amritsar (190Kms & 4-5hrs drive)

After early breakfast at hotel, drive to Amritsar.

Amritsar is a holy city in the state of Punjab. The city is famous for its Golden Temple. Amritsar is a combination of 2 words Amrit and Sar. Amrit means "elixir" and Sar means sarovar or lake, which means the "holy pool of nectar" around the Golden Temple. Amritsar is a spiritual and cultural center of the Sikh religion and famous for its unique Gurdwara (place of worship)- The Golden Temple, which was initiated by Guru Ramdaas Ji- the fourth Sikh Guru and it was completed in 1601 by his successor Guru Arjan Dev Ji. Today, it is a major pilgrimage centre for Sikh and one of the most popular tourist destinations in India.

Arrive Amritsar and check into your hotel. Later, you can visit the famous Golden Temple & Jallianwala Bagh.

Golden Temple: This sacred Sikh shrine attracts pilgrims from all over the world who come there to pay their respects and do voluntary service. Incredibly, the number of visitors per year rivals the Taj Mahal in Agra. The main temple looks particularly arresting at night when it's beautifully lit up, with its imposing pure gold dome illuminated. The temple complex is open for almost 20 hours, from 6 a.m. to 2 a.m. It's well worth two visits -- during the day and night. Heads must be covered and shoes removed when you enter the temple.

Jallianwala Bagh: Jallianwala Bagh (Garden) is 5minute walk from the Golden Temple, and is the site of the 1919 Amritsar massacre. On April 13 of that year, British Indian Army soldiers opened fire on an unarmed gathering of men, women and children. The firing lasted about 10 minutes and 1650 rounds were fired, killing 1579 people. A memorial was built on the site and inaugurated by the then-President of India, Dr. Rajendra Prasad, on 13 April 1961. to this day the bullet holes can be seen on the walls and adjoining buildings. The well into which many people jumped and drowned attempting to save themselves from the hail of bullets is also a protected monument inside the park.

In the late afternoon, proceed to Wagah Border, to see the indo- Pak border closing ceremony, where Indian and Pakistani soldiers do a march-off every evening, a popular and fun event. Return to hotel in the evening. Dinner & Overnight at hotel.

Post dinner, if you want, you can also visit the Golden Temple for Night ceremony, when the holy book is carried to the rest room.

Shimla is a captivating hill station and also the capital city of the state of Himachal Pradesh. It is also lovingly referred to as the "Queen of the Hill Stations" owing to its unparalleled natural beauty. The entire town of Shimla is replete with forests of pine, rhododendron, and oak and experiences pleasing summers and cold, snowy winters. Besides, it is also highly acclaimed for its buildings styled in tudorbethan and neo-gothic architecture evocative of the colonial era. It was the most sought-after summer getaways and the summer capital of the erstwhile British Raj in India as well.

You will well received on your arrival at Shimla Volvo Station and transfer to hotel.

Check in time is 12 Noon but we will try to give you room at earliest possible.

Breakfast at hotel and rest of the morning at leisure.

In the afternoon, proceed for city tour of Shimla, visiting Indian Institute Of Advanced Studies, located in the Vice regal Lodge, it was constructed in the year 1888. The kind of architecture is English Renaissance with stonework of the walling in light blue limestone and the wrought stonework being done in sandstone in a stunning light gray shade. Sankat Mochan Temple, is located at Taradevi on the Kalka- Shimla National Highway and one of the most important temple visited not only by the devotees & pilgrims but also by the tourists of all age groups and Jakhu temple, is located at an altitude of 2455mtrs from sea level and dedicated to Monkey God, Hanuman. It is an uphill climb through the beautiful deodar trees. Stop for a while at the beautiful stained-glass-windows of Christ Church, which was built in the 1850.

In the evening, stroll around Mall road, which is a key shopping centre of Shimla with restaurants, banks, bars, tourist office and most of town's highlights. The place becomes breathtakingly romantic in the evening offering wonderful views of the lit up city.

Dinner & Overnight at hotel.

Day 03: Shimla

After Breakfast at hotel, proceed to visit Kufri.

Kufri is a small but a beautiful hill station near Shimla, known for its scenic beauty. Situated at an altitude of 2,500mtr from sea level, Kufri is popular for its picturesque trekking & hiking trails and natural beauty.

A horse ride up to Mahasu Peak is an experience not to be missed (which you can pay directly on the spot).

Arrive Amritsar and check into your hotel.
Later, proceed to visit the famous Golden Temple & Jaliawalan Bagh.

Golden Temple: This sacred Sikh shrine attracts pilgrims from all over the world who come there to pay their respects and do voluntary service. Incredibly, the number of visitors per year rivals the Taj Mahal in Agra. The main temple looks particularly arresting at night when it's beautifully lit up, with its imposing pure gold dome illuminated. The temple complex is open for almost 20 hours, from 6 a.m. to 2 a.m. It's well worth two visits -- during the day and night. Heads must be covered and shoes removed when you enter the temple.

Jallianwala Bagh: Jallianwala Bagh (Garden) is 5minute walk from the Golden Temple, and is the site of the 1919 Amritsar massacre. On April 13 of that year, British Indian Army soldiers opened fire on an unarmed gathering of men, women and children. The firing lasted about 10 minutes and 1650 rounds were fired, killing 1579 people. A memorial was built on the site and inaugurated by the then-President of India, Dr. Rajendra Prasad, on 13 April 1961. to this day the bullet holes can be seen on the walls and adjoining buildings. The well into which many people jumped and drowned attempting to save themselves from the hail of bullets is also a protected monument inside the park.

In the late afternoon, proceed to Wagah Border, to see the indo- Pak border closing ceremony, where Indian and Pakistani soldiers do a march-off every evening, a popular and fun event.

Return to hotel in the evening.

Option: After the dinner at hotel, if you wish, you can visit the Golden Temple to see the night ceremony, where the holy book Guru Granth Sahib is carried to its resting place and same ceremony is repeated in the early morning, when the holy book carried to the main temple for the day.

Dinner & Overnight at hotel.

Day 09: Amritsar/ Delhi (500Kms & 10hrs drive)

TOUR NO. 18: KASHMIR TOUR (06 NIGHTS/ 07 DAYS) (SRINAGAR- SONMARG- GULMARG- PAHALGAM- SRINAGAR)

Day 01: Arrive Srinagar

Arrive Srinagar in the afternoon.

The Kashmir valley is distinctively marked by breath-taking lakes, fresh water streams, luscious fruits, magnificent forests, mighty mountains and lush meadows which make it a paradise on Earth. The mountain-downs or "margs" are numerous on the tops of the hill ranges prominent being Gulmarg, Sonamarg, Yousmarg etc. Srinagar, arguably a city that embodies romance and beauty is the summer capital of Jammu and Kashmir; perfectly placed in the center of the Kashmir Valley. Srinagar literally meaning 'the city of wealth & abundance' in Sanskrit, was founded around 150 AD by King Pravarasen II. Situated on the banks of the river Jhelum, Srinagar is surrounded by beautiful lakes like Dal, Nagin and Anchar, whose glittering waters reflecting the rays of the sun is a sight to behold. Its vividly vibrant & beautiful houseboats sailing along the scenic Dal Lake against the backdrop of the majestic Himalayan snow clad mountains makes Srinagar a dream destination for every traveler.

You will be well received on your arrival at Srinagar airport and transfer to hotel.
Rest of the afternoon at leisure.

In the evening, proceed for Shikara Ride (1hrs) on the famous Dal Lake to enjoy the beauty that God has graced this city, which is often compared to Venice. You will get a lovely view of some interesting places around the lake.
Dinner & Overnight at House Boat.

Day 02: Srinagar

After breakfast at hotel, proceed for half day city tour of Srinagar, visiting the famous Nishat Garden known as "Garden of Pleasure" built in 16th Century (1633AD) by Mughal King Asif Khan. Then visit Shalimar Garden known as "Garden of Love" built in 16th Century (1619AD) by Mughal King Jehangir for his beloved wife Noor Jehan (Mehr-un-Nissa) and later pay a visit to the famous White Mosque of Srinagar city (Hazratbal Shrine).
In the afternoon, proceed to visit the famous Pari Mahal, Shankaracharya temple situated on top of a hill where you can have a view of whole Srinagar City.

In the evening, proceed for 2nd round of Shikara Ride (1hrs) on the famous Dal Lake.
Dinner & Overnight at House Boat.

Day 03: Srinagar/ Sonmarg (80Kms & 3hrs drive)

After breakfast at hotel, drive towards Sonmarg.

Sonmarg (2740mtrs), known as the 'Meadow of Gold', Sonmarg is set amidst a valley of flowers and lakes. The word "Son" literally means "Gold" in Hindi, and this golden beauty covered with white snow is most attractive in the spring. The exotic flora of the region is nurtured by the Sindh River. Situated at an altitude of 2743mtr above sea level, Sonmarg is the gateway to Ladakh. The dense forests of Sonmarg comprise of sycamore and alpine flowers, silver birch, fir and pine. The place is frequently visited by nature lovers in the search of tranquil peace and soothing natural beauty. The stunning blue water lakes and grasslands are the other attractions. The enchanting beauty of the towering snow clad mountains is a real treat to the eyes. Sonmarg is a base camp for the holy Amarnath yatra.
